The Harper's Ferry Insurrection.

The book published by "Bachelder & Nichols," formerly of North Carolina, has been a Northern Abolitionist's rejoicing, and such has been such an exciting debate in the House of Representatives, containing the following sentiments:

"Inscribed on the banner which we here wish unfurled to the world, with the full and fixed determination to stand by it or die by it, unless one of more virtuous efficacy shall be presented, are the mottoes which, in substance, embody the principles, as we conceive, that should govern us in our patriotic warfare against the most subtle and insidious foes that ever assailed the inalienable rights and liberties and dearest interests of America."

"A vindication of the independence of the United States at Harper's Ferry, in Virginia, by head of armed men, and report whether the same was attended by arms of the United States, and the military force of the United States, and by the murder of any of the citizens of Virginia, or of any troops there, were it proved the opposite, properly whatever such invasion and seizure may have intended, or any violation of the State of the Union, or of the Constitution, or of any law of the United States, or of any citizen of the United States, or of any other individual, or any who advocates the reduction and perpetuation of human slavery, and his fidelity with them in religion; and his fidelity with them in society."

"No protection to pro-slavery, negroes, no guarantee to slaveholding masters; no freedom to slaves; no protection to negro slaves; no employment to pro-slavery persons; no assistance to pro-slavery persons."

"No more hiring of slaves by non-slaveholders."

"A abrupt disconnection of subscription to pro-slavery newspapers."

This book, containing the above extracts, (says the Constitution,) recommending treason and insurrection, the abolition by violence of an institution which affords sovereign States of the Union approve and maintain under the express sanction and guarantee of the constitution, and the excommunication of all who uphold that institution and their exclusion from social, religious and business fellowships—has been openly and emphatically endorsed, and a hundred thousand copies of it circulated by the leaders of the Black Republican party, including sixty-eight members of Congress, whose names are announced:

Schuyler Colfax, Amos Bustleton, Warren Broome, Amos P. Granger, Edwin H. Morgan, Galusha, A. Grow, Joshua R. Giddings, Edward Hale, Calvin C. Shaffee, Wm. Howard, Henry Wilson, John Sherman, Wm. G. Walker, Daniel W. Goodell, Henry L. Dawes, Justin S. Morrill, I. Washburne, Jr., A. J. Bingham, Wm. Kellogg, E. B. Washburne, Benjamin Stanton, Edward Dodd, C. B. Tompkins, John Covode, Cad. C. Washburn, Samuel G. Andrews, Abraham B. Olin, Sidney Den, Nath'l B. Durfee, Emory D. Puter, De Witt C. Leach, John P. Potter, T. Duryea of Mass., J. F. Farnsworth, C. L. Knapp, R. E. Fenlon, Philoress Bliss, Mrs. W. Taft, Charles Case, A. Davis of Iowa, James P. Pike, Homer E. Royce, Isaac D. Clawson, A. S. Moir, Robert B. Hall, Val. H. Horton, William H. Morse, David Kilmer, Wm. Stewart, Samuel R. Curtis, John Wood, John M. Parker, Stephen C. Foster, Chas. J. Gilman, Chas. B. Howard, John Thompson, J. W. Sherman, Wm. D. Brayton, James Binghamton, O. R. Matteson, Richard Mott, George R. Robbins, E. P. Walton, James Wilson, S. A. Purvis, F. E. Spinner, S. M. Burroughs.

Here we find SIXTY-EIGHT Republican members of Congress endorsing an incendiary Abolition publication, and among them JOHN SHERMAN, the candidate of that party for the Speakership of the National House of Representatives—supported by the vote of EDWARD McPHERSON, elected by the "People's Party" of this district!

Is it any wonder that the people of the South, the people of Pennsylvania, a garrisoned spirit to assert and maintain, the conservative people of the entire Union—are alarmed for the perpetuation of our glorious institutions.

On Tuesday, the Senate discussed Mr. Mason's resolution in regard to the Harper's Ferry insurrection.

Mr. Simons and John Brown's crime had no redeeming quality, but still he was a brave man.

Mr. Mallory did not rise to advocate the resolution, but defended Northern Democrats from the assaults of Republican Senators.

He was not surprised that those Senators denied all knowledge of Brown's plan, but the sympathy so generally expressed at the North showed that the "irrepressible conflict" had indeed commenced.

Mr. Iverson read from the report of the late debate in the Massachusetts Legislature, to John SHERMAN is elected Speaker of the House. Investigation and discussion frightened them. The recoil is trying their nerves. Exposure alarms them. They see that they have gone too far and put too heavy a load on the camel's back. They are willing to be quiet if the patient beast will only consent to bear the load in silence. Of course, men in a tight place sometimes deny their own identity.

But the Republicans can make nothing at this last day by pretending to be opposed to agitation. They inaugurated, and are now prosecuting, this hateful agitation with fearful energy. They have it in their power to put a stop to it. The Democracy do not want agitation; the South longs for peace and quiet. They only ask to be let alone in their constitutional rights. Let the Republican party abandon the irrepressible conflict, brand Helper's pamphlet, and drop every man engaged in its circulation; let them acknowledge the equality of the States, and stop this eternal dig and dash and rub-a-dub of agitation against Slavery; and quiet will be restored in a moment. If they will not do so, they alone are responsible for the consequences.

The rioting of Virginia, fear and Southern law, manifested throughout the trying scene the most heroic bearing, and unflinchingly met his fate, as only a brave man could."

The Republican papers praise largely

John Brown's "patriotism," "courage," "self-sacrifice," "man," &c. His deserves credit for this, who, not less than other masters, also, who exhibited the same noble and courageous courage over the whole field of the South.

The "Guardian of Young Men" showed it equally when hung at Hollister, N. Y.

Mr. Garrison, who has, in his judgment, done a great deal to bring about the present state of things, is a man of great personal worthiness, and a true patriot.

WHAT CONSTITUTES A GOOD SEWING MACHINE?

1. It should be well made, simple in its consstruction, and easily kept in order.

2. It should make a rapid, even, straight, alike

on both sides of the material.

3. It should sew any and all materials that can be sewed.

4. It should be able to use Cotton, Thread,

or Silk, directly from the spool.

5. It should be able to sew from coarse to fine, and from thick to thin, with rapidity, and without changing the tension.

6. It should be able to make the tension greater or less, on both the under and upper threads, and with uniformity.

7. It should have a straight needle; curved ones are liable to break.

8. The needle should have perpendicular motion. This is absolutely necessary for heavy work.

9. It should be capable of taking in the largest pieces of work.

10. It should be able to bind with a binder,

hem with a hemmer; should stitch, fell, run

and gather.

11. It should be always ready to work.

12. It should be capable of using the same size of thread on both sides of the work, and of using different colored thread or silk, above or below, to correspond with any two colors of cloth to be united.

13. It should be able to make a long or short stitch.

14. It should be able to fasten off the seam,

and commence sewing tightly at the first stitch.

15. It should run easily and make but little noise.

16. It should have a wheel feed; none others are in constant contact with the work.

17. It should not be liable to get out of order.

18. It should not be liable to break the thread, nor skip stitches.

19. It should not be necessary to use a screwdriver or wrench to set the needle.

20. It should not be liable to oil the operators dress.

21. It should not form a ridge on the under side of the ravel, nor be liable of thread or below, to all chain-stitch machines.

22. It should not be “more trouble than it is worth.”

23. Finally, all of these advantages are possessed by our Sewing Machine.

The Helper Anti-Slavery Book.
The book published by "Prologue" Helper, formerly of North Carolina, has now become an exciting debate in the House of Representatives, contains the following sentiments:

"Inscribed on the banner which we here with unfurled to the world, with the full and fixed determination to stand by it or die by it, unless one of more virtuous efficacy shall be presented, are the mottoes which, in substance, embody the principles, as we conceive, that should govern us in our patriotic war against the most subtle and insidious foes that ever menaced the inalienable rights and liberties and dearest interests of America."

"1. Through organization and independent political action on the part of the non-slaveholding whites of the South.

"2. Injustice to any one who advocates the retention and perpetuation of human slavery.

"3. No cooperation with pro-slavery politicians; no fellowship with them in religion;

"4. No patronage to pro-slavery mercenaries; guest-houses in slave-waiting hotels; no fees to pro-slavery lawyers; no employment to pro-slavery physicians; no audience to pro-slavery persons."

"5. No more hiring of slaves by non-slaveholders."

"6. Abrupt discontinuance of subscription to pro-slavery newspapers."

This book, containing the above extracts, (says the Constitution,) recommending treason and insurrection, the abolition by violence of an institution which fifteen sovereign States of the Union approve and maintain, under the express sanction and guarantee of the constitution, and the excommunication of all who uphold that institution and their exclusion from social, religious and business fellowship—has been openly and emphatically endorsed, and a hundred thousand copies of it circulated by the leaders of the Black Republican party, including sixty-eight members of Congress, whose names are annexed:

Schuyler Colfax, Anson Burlingame, Owen Lovejoy, Amos P. Granger, Edwin H. Morgan, Galusha, A. Grow, Joshua R. Giddings, Edward Wade, Calvin C. Shufee, Wm. A. Howard, Henry Wilson, John Sherman, Geo. W. Palmer, Daniel W. Goodrich, Henry L. Dawes, Justin S. Morrill, I. Washburne, Jr., J. A. Bingham, Wm. Kellogg, E. B. Washburn, Benjamin Stanton, Edward Dodd, C. B. Tompkins, John C. Cooley, Cad. C. Washburn, Samuel G. Andrews, Alpheus B. Olin, Sidney Dean, Nath'l B. Durfee, Emory D. Potter, De Witt C. Read, John F. Potter, T. Davis of Mass., J. F. Farnsworth, C. L. Knapp, R. E. Fenton, Philomeno Bias, John W. Tappan, Charles Case, T. Davis of Iowa, James Pike, Homer E. Boyce, Isaac D. Clawson, A. S. Murry, Robert B. Hall, V. B. Horton, Franklin H. Morse, David Gilmore, Wm. Stewart, Samuel R. Curtis, John W. Wood, John M. Parker, Stephen U. Foster, Chas. J. Gilman, Chas. B. Hough, John Thompson, J. W. Sherman, Wm. D. Brayton, James Buffington, O. B. Matteson, Richard Mott, George R. Robbins, E. P. Walton, James Wilson, S. A. Purvis, F. E. Spinner, S. M. Burroughs.

Here we find SIXTY-EIGHT Republicans members of Congress endorsing an insidious Abolition publication, and among them JOHN SHERMAN, the candidate of that party for Speaker of the National House of Representatives—supported by the vote of Edward M. Pherson, elected by the "People's Party" of this district! Is any wonder that the people of the South—the conservative people of the entire Union—are alarmed for the perpetuation of our glorious institutions?

Wednesday.—The Senate took up Mr. Mason's resolution, but did not come to a vote.

The House took up Mr. Clark's resolution in regard to Helper's Book, and speeches were made by Messrs. Clark, Gilmer, Burnett, Millson, Leake, Keitt, Garnett, Stephen, and others. Without deciding the question, or taking another vote for Speaker, the House adjourned, amidst much excitement.

Wednesday.—The Senate took up Mr. Mason's resolution in regard to the Harper's Ferry insurrection.

Mr. Simmons said John Brown's crime had no redeeming quality, but still he was a brave man.

Mr. Mallory did not rise to advocate the resolution, but defended Northern Southerners from the assaults of Republican Senators.

He was not surprised that those Senators denied all knowledge of Brown's plan, but the sympathy so generally expressed at the North showed that the "irrepressible conflict" had indeed commenced.

Mr. Iverson read from the report of the late debate in the Massachusetts Legislature, on the proposition to adjourn in respect to John Brown, and from a Boston paper, to show that notwithstanding the statements of Republican Senators to the contrary, there was a general sympathy for John Brown in that State. He said that Greeley, of the Tribune, and Thurloe Wred, of the Albany Evening Journal, the mouth-pieces of Republican Senators well known as political demagogues, had openly and emphatically expressed their identity.

But the Republicans can make nothing at this late day by pretending to be opposed to agitation. They inaugurated, and are now prosecuting, this naked agitation with fearful energy. They have it in their power to stop it. The Democracy do not want agitation; the South longs for peace and quiet. They only ask to be let alone in their constitutional rights. Let the Republican party abandon the irrepressible conflict, brand Helper's pamphlet, and expel every man engaged in its circulation; let them acknowledge the equality of the States, and stop this eternal din and chatter and rub-a-dub of agitation against Slavery, and quiet will be restored in a moment. If they will not do so, they alone are responsible for the consequent.

Mr. Hale expressed his opinion that the sentiments contained in the Helper book were not as objectionable as represented by the gentleman from Georgia.

Mr. Clingman stated that the sentiments of the book were fully as bad as had been represented by the gentleman from Georgia.

Mr. Brown said when Senators make public disquisitions in regard to this matter, he was not the one to stand up and charge his peers with deliberate falsehood; but there has been that going on at the North, calculated to produce a very different impression upon the Southern mind. It is usual for notorious malefactors, murderers, robbers and traitors to have expressions of sympathy in the leading journals of the North? Suppose the case had been reversed, and a far worse had been made into Massachusetts, and the Springfield-army had been seized for the avowed purpose of forcing slavery into Massachusetts and overturning the government of that State, would the Tribune, Evening Post and other Republican journals have expressed such sympathy in that case, as they have in this? Would New England clergymen have called their congregations together in prayer meetings for the soul of such a culprit?

The debate on Mr. Mason's resolution continued till a late hour, when, without taking a vote, the Senate adjourned.

A Long Shot.—On last Thanksgiving day, Mr. H. C. Orme, of Baltimore, while gunning for wild geese on Kent Island, accomplished a "palpitating hit," which successfully demonstrated the almost incredible range of the Minie musket. With that terrible and destructive weapon, Mr. Orme struck and killed at an ascertained distance of one and a quarter miles, a wild goose, measuring 72 feet from tip to tip. The game was brought to Baltimore, and presented to Major Joseph P. Warner.

A mammoth Sausage, measuring 51 feet in length and weighing 24 lbs., was made at the Pork Packing Establishment of Mr. James Gilbert, Uniontown, Md., last week.

Slavery dead was a more powerful instrument in the hands of an arrogant priesthood than the old "martyr" himself.

Dr. McLean's
CELEBRATED VERMIFUGE & LIVER PILLS. We beg leave to call the attention of the Trade, and more especially the Physicians of the country, to two of the most popular remedies now before the public, VERMIFUGE AND LIVER PILLS. We do not consider them as new, but care about simply for what their name purports—viz., VERMIFUGE, for expelling Worms from the human system. It has also been administered with the most satisfactory results to various Animals subject to Worms. The LIVER PILLS, for the cure of Liver Complaints, all Bilious Diseases, Sick Heads, &c. In cases of Fever and Ague, preparatory to or after taking Quinine, they almost invariably make a speedy and permanent cure. As specific for the above mentioned diseases, they are unrivaled, and never known to fail when administered in accordance with the directions.

The unprecedented popularity has induced the Proprietors, FLEMING BROTHERS, PITTSBURG, PA., to dispose of their Drug business, in which they have been successfully engaged for the last 20 years, and they will now give their undivided time and attention to their manufacture. And being determined that Dr. McLean's Celebrated Vermifuge and Liver Pills shall continue to occupy the high position of the day, they will continue to spare neither time nor expense in procuring the best and purest materials, and compound them in the most thorough manner. Address all orders to FLEMING BROTHERS, Pittsburg, Pa.

P. S.—Dealers and Physicians ordering from others than Fleming Bros., will do well to write their orders distinctly, and take note of Dr. McLean's prepared by Fleming Bros., Pittsburg, Pa. To those writing to give them a trial, we will forward per mail post paid, to any part of the United States, one box of Pills for twelve three-cent postage, or one vial of Vermifuge for fourteen-cent postage. All orders from Canada must be accompanied by twenty cents extra.

For sale by A. D. Buehler, Agent, Gettysburg, and by dealers generally throughout the county.

Notice

TO FARMERS AND MERCHANTS.—We have now opened our large and commodious Warehouse, on the corner of Franklin and Railroad Streets, near the Depot of the Gettysburg and Franklin Company, and are prepared to receive produce of every kind, viz.: FLAX, WHEAT, WHEAT, OATS, &c. Also, on land and sea, Salt, Gums, Pitch, Fish, &c. A large stock of Groceries just received, consisting of SUGARS, COFFEE, SPICES, MOLASSES, OILS, RUM, TEAS, SPIRITS, of all kinds, CEDAR-WARE, &c., &c., which we do not hesitate to say, will sell as well as can be bought elsewhere, wholesale and retail.

MERCHANTS will do well by calling to see and examining our stock before purchasing elsewhere, as our motto will be "quick sales and small profits."

We would also call the attention of all interested in the thrifty and healthy condition of their Cattle, Horses, Hogs, &c., to the fact that we have for sale BREKING, FRIMFIELD & CO.'s Celebrated Vegetable CATTLE POWDER, of which we have sold from 1500 to 2000 pounds per annum to Farmers and Stockkeepers.

Notice.

Latest News! THE undersigned having retired from the Marting business, the same will henceforth be conducted at the old stand in Baltimore, by their sons, Henry B. Danner and Waybright Ziegler, under the name and style of Danner & Ziegler, Jr., whom we will recommend to, and for whom we would bespeak a liberal share of patronage from old customers, and of the public in general.

Having retired from the Merchantile business, it is necessary that our old business should be settled up. We, therefore, notify all those indebted to us either by Judgment, Note or Book Account, to call and settle the same without delay. The books will be found at the old stand.
